

Webinar series

BHVS 2021

WEBINAR

Virtual Annual Conference

Tuesday 2nd November 2021:

Endocarditis in the 21st Century / The Young Patient with Heart Valve Disease

Register @ www.bhvs.talkingslideshd.com

For full details visit: www.bhvs.org.uk

Morning session – Infective Endocarditis in the 21st Century

09:00 – 09:05	Introduction
09:05 – 09:25	Early surgery in endocarditis – has the paradigm finally shifted? Professor Simon Ray, Past President BCS and BHVS, Manchester University NHS Trust, Manchester, UK
09:25 – 09:45	Cardiac device infections – diagnostic and treatment challenges Dr Nik Sabharwal, Consultant Cardiologist, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Oxford, UK
09:45 – 10:05	Surgery or conservative management for prosthetic valve endocarditis? Professor Farah Bhatti OBE, Consultant Cardiac Surgeon, Swansea Bay University Health Board, Wales, UK
10:05 – 10:25	Early oral antibiotics for endocarditis Prof Henning Bundgaard, senior author of the POET study, Copenhagen, Denmark
10:25 – 10:50	Coffee break
10:50 – 11:50	Live endocarditis MDT with audience interaction
11:50 – 12:30	ESC guidelines on valve disease 2021 – what's new? Professor Bernard Prendergast, Consultant Cardiologist and Co-author of ESC Valvular Heart Disease Guidelines 2021, Guys, Kings and St Thomas' Hospital, London, UK
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break

Afternoon session – The Young Patient with Heart Valve Disease

13:00 – 13:05	Introduction
13:05 – 13:20	Sports and valve disease Professor Sanjay Sharma, Professor of Sports Cardiology, St Georges Hospital NHS Trust, London, UK
13:20 – 13:35	Pregnancy and valve disease Dr Cathy Head, Consultant Cardiologist and President of the UK Maternal Cardiology Society, Norfolk and Norwich University Hospitals Trust, UK
13:35 – 13:50	Obesity and valve disease Professor John Chambers, Professor of Clinical Cardiology and Founding President of BHVS, Guys, Kings and St Thomas' Hospital, London, UK
13:50 – 14:05	So my young patient wants a bioprosthetic valve – what do I tell them? (TBC)
14:05 – 14:20	So my young patient wants a TAVI – what do I tell them? Dr Mamta Buch, Consultant Cardiologist, Manchester University Foundation Trust, Manchester, UK
14:20 – 14:40	Afternoon break
14:40 – 15:40	Live valve MDT with audience interaction
15:40 – 15:45	Close

Accreditation

The BHVS Annual Conference 2020 has been approved by the RCP for five (external) CPD credits. This course has been awarded 3 re-accreditation points by the British Society of Echocardiography.

British Heart Valve Society

Improving Care for Patients with Heart Valve Disease